Con-Terra's fundraiser successful

The Con-Terra Woman's Club sponsored its third annual Wheels for Life Bike-A-Thon to raise money for St. Jude's Hospital on Saturday, April 16.

The event took place in Concord, where two roads were used to make a circle route of one mile. State Trooper Cardwell ensured that riders and auto traffic moved together safely.

The event started at 9 a.m., and included 26 bikers, one walker and one dog, "Brownie". Upon each completion of a lap, participants had their mileage recorded at the check point. The benefit ended at the established cut-off time, 2 p.m.

Daniel Austin, Jr. and Billy Strain, both age 12, finished with the highest mileage, 32 miles each. A combined total of 500 miles were recorded, with pledges totaling $1010. Ken Baker recorded the single highest pledge, $139. He also had the most sponsors. The dog, Brownie, completed a total of 19 miles before being removed from the event.

The money raised will be used for cancer research.

Funds needed

Mrs. Edith N. McCormick, chairman of the Appomattox County American Red Cross drive, reminds area citizens that the drive is continuing.

"We sincerely thank those who have made contributions but we need more in order to be prepared for all situations," Mrs. McCormick said.

"We urge everyone to give as generously as possible to one of the following volunteers: Grover P. Beasley, co-chairman, Bill Hunter, Nina Beasley, Charlie Ed Turner, Peggy Lawson, Betty McGann or to me," Mrs. McCormick urged.

The goal this year is $2,200 Checks may be made payable to American Red Cross.

"Let's help keep Red Cross ready in Appomattox," Mrs. McCormick concluded.

Gretna defeats Raiders 4-2

The Raider varsity baseball team lost its second game of this season to Gretna 4-2 last Wednesday, despite outhitting the Hawks, nine hits to five.

Appomattox went ahead in the game 2-1 in the second inning on a home run by Kevin Ferguson with Alan Edmonds on base. Edmonds had reached first base on a Gretna error. The Hawks came back to tie the score 2-2 in the third inning.

The score remained 2-2 until the top of the seventh inning, when the Hawks' first two hitters got on base with base hits, then moved ahead a base on a pass ball.

The Gretna short stop, Tony Taylor, then stroked a single to score the two men on base, and Gretna had a 4-2 lead.

In the Raiders' half of the seventh, Gary Ferguson hit a single with two out in the inning, but the potential Raider rally died with no runs.

The game was a pitcher's duel throughout most of the innings, particularly from the third to the seventh, according to Raider Coach Howard Clabough.

"Our biggest problem in this game was leaving base runners stranded," commented the coach after the game. "We left nine men on base."

Gary Ferguson went three for four against Gretna, Rodney Bryant went two for four, and Kevin Ferguson went two for two, including a home run.

The Raiders had a busy schedule this week, due to the number of games rained out in recent weeks. The team was scheduled to play Altavista Tuesday night, Liberty on Wednesday, and Rustburg tomorrow (Friday) at Rustburg. Next Tuesday the team will play Nelson at home, on Wednesday the team will play Brookville away, and on Friday the Raiders will play a double header against Jefferson Forest at home, with the first game starting at 2 p.m.

Boys' tennis team wins first 3 matches

The Raider boys' tennis team had managed to get three matches played between rainy spells up through last week, and the local team was unbeaten with the number-one player, Freddie Lawson, not having lost a game.

The Raiders defeated Randolph-Henry 6-3, and they defeated Rustburg and Altavista 9-0.

Team members this year include Freddie Lawson, John Booker, James Beaty, Rick Caldwell, Bobby Carter, Donnie Hudson, R.L. Waldo, Mike McCoy, Stan Slagle, and Steve Cyrus, who is currently out with an ankle injury.

The Raiders' doubles team has been unbeaten in the first three matches of the season. The doubles teams include Lawson and Booker, Beaty and Carter, and Hudson and Caldwell.

"I've been very pleased with the overall performance of the team this year," comments tennis coach Doug Marshall. "This year, we seem to have a solid team overall. We have consistency at the top of the ladder, and the lower part of the ladder does well in competition, as well," the coach added.

The coach added that Rick Caldwell has been a "pleasant surprise" this season, performing well in his matches.

Marshall says that the toughest part of his team's schedule is now approaching. The team was scheduled to play Liberty yesterday (Wednesday), and are scheduled to play Brookville today (Thursday) and Rustburg tomorrow. The Brookville and Rustburg games are both away.

Tuesday, the team is scheduled to play Randolph-Henry away, and next Friday, Appomattox is scheduled to play their final home match of the season, against Jefferson Forest.

Local canine excels

Bill Britton's black Labrador Retriever, "Willie," won first place in the senior puppy class of competition at the William Pugh Chapter of Ducks Unlimited's third annual Retriever Trials held this weekend in Lynchburg.

There were 57 dogs entered in the competition, from Maryland, Delaware and North Carolina, as well as Virginia.

Britton's dog, which is 10 months old, already has a hunting season's experience under his collar, and has been "retrieving since he was six weeks old, when I had him retrieving live pigeons."

Jayvees have won six

The Raider junior varsity baseball team's record stands at 6-3 after a loss to Jefferson Forest and a victory over Gretna.

The Raiders lost to Jefferson Forest 9-7 in a sloppily played game. Russell Walton led the attack with two hits and three stolen bases.

Lonnie Hamlett, Andre McCoy, Jeff Motley and Marvin Hamlett each added a base hit for the Raiders. Alex Almond and R.W. Jamerson each pitched, but numerous errors and misplayed balls allowed the Cavaliers to score nine runs.

Against Gretna, the team's bats exploded for 10 hits in defeating the jayvee Hawks, 5-3, in eight innings. The potent offensive attack was backed by fine pitching by Mike Ferguson. Curtis Pearson knocked in the winning run in the top of the eighth inning, scoring Kevin Kendrick after he had reached base on a double. Andre McCoy and Ron Scruggs each had a double and a single for the Raiders in the Gretna game.

Thus far in the season, team leaders include Russell Walton (13 for 23, .500 batting average), Darren Tolley (10 runs scored), Lonny Hamlett (eight runs batted in), Ron Scruggs (six stolen bases), and Mike Ferguson (3.91 earned-run average).

Errors hurt girls in game with Nelson

The Raiderette softball team fell victim to an outstanding pitching performance by Nelson County's Tammy Taylor and recorded their second loss of the season last Thursday, 11-1.

Taylor pitched five innings of hitless softball, noted Raiderette coach Mary Tolley, "and she held us to only three hits in the final two innings of the game," Tolley added.

"That, plus a solid defensive game by Nelson County and some costly errors by us gave them as easy win," the coach said.

Marsha Cheatham, Shelia Mullins and Sherry Purcell were the only Raiderettes to get hits against Nelson County. Mullins scored the lone Raiderette run, in the final inning of play.

The coach did point out one highlight of the game for the Raiderettes, and that was the "excellent defensive game" of Robin Paulette.

Mother Nature has wreaked havoc with the Raiderette scheduled thus far this season. The team was scheduled to play Liberty yesterday (Wednesday) at Liberty, and is scheduled to play Rustburg Friday at home. Next Monday, the team will face off against Gretna in a make-up game at Gretna.

Tournament postponed

Due to unseasonable temperatures this Spring, the Men's and Women's Singles Tournament scheduled at Falling River Country Club this weekend have been postponed and will be rescheduled on a later date.

The next tournaments are the men's and women's doubles, scheduled for May 14-15.
